

Cute Kids Portrait Contest

This is a contest sponsored by Studio One Photography, BamaMoms, and Quintard Mall. This contest is not necessarily about which kid is the cutest- It's more about choosing the most attractive image of a child (or children). All photography must be done by Studio One. Contestants may be creative with ideas, props etc.

Contestants will schedule an appointment, bring child (or children) in for the photo shoot, come back at a later date and select the image to be used as the competition image. This image will be displayed in the food court area of Quintard Mall.

Judging will be by popular vote. Each voter must obtain a ballot from the Mall office, fill out the ballot and drop it in a box on-location where the images are displayed.

Guidelines-

- All entries must be photographed by Studio One.
- Only children between newborn and age 10 may enter.
- Competition image may be of 1 child or up to 4 siblings or cousins.
- Your photo session must be scheduled between February 9 and March 1.
- You must make your selection for your competition print by March 10.
- There is an entry fee of $49. plus tax.(a $169.00 value) This includes the studio session, the viewing appointment, and 1 11x14 studio print. The 11x14 studio print will be displayed prominently in the food court at Quintard Mall for the duration of the contest and will be yours to keep after the contest (see add'l photography information, below).

Judging will be by popular vote. The competition images will be displayed from March 15 thru March 28, 2010. A winner will be announced on March 31. The winning image will be published in the Anniston Star, on the BamaMoms website and on the Studio One website. There will also be 2nd place and 3rd place winners. All three winning images will be prominently displayed at the Quintard Mall for 4 weeks. Winners will receive a range of prizes such as gift certificates, gift baskets, special services, etc., all TBA

Additional Photography information

This contest is about creating beautiful images of your child, grandchild, children or grandchildren. Your input is encouraged and a pre-session consultation with the photographer is strongly suggested. Feel free to bring props and special clothing, suggest backgrounds, etc. Your ideas are extremely important. The finished 11x14 competition image can be in color, black and white, or sepia. You can enter a print with selective color for an additional charge.

We will offer special portrait packages only for participants of this contest, however no additional purchases are necessary.

While there will be only 1 grand prize winner, 1 2nd place finisher and 1 3rd place finisher, there will certainly not be any losers. Everyone who enters will have a beautiful portrait of their child, a memorable experience, and a savings of over $120.00.
